COOPERS' HALL

13 Devonshire Square, London, EC2M 4TH | CAPACITY: 90 Guests

The newly refurbished Coopers' Hall is a delightful Pre-Georgian Town House in the heart of the City of London. The smallest and one of the oldest City Livery Halls with a history of wooden cask making since its origins in the 13th Century. The Hall is beautifully preserved providing the perfect location for exclusive lunches, dinners, meetings, conferences and receptions.

DINING ROOM & ANTE

The Dining Room is the largest of the three spaces with the capacity to host conferences for up to 26 delegates on a U shape; 45 for a buffet reception, and 32 for a lunch or dinner.

MUSEUM

A unique focus point; the perfect space for standing receptions or pre-dinner drinks for up to 40 guests. On display we have valuable artefacts which create an interesting topic of conversation for all your guests. The perfect ice breaker!

COURT ROOM

The Court Room is ideal space for a boardroom style meeting for 20 delegates, and up to 25 delegates for a theatre style presentation. 60 guests can stand comfortably for either canapé or buffet receptions. The Court Room is also the ideal option should break out space be required.

All three rooms at Coopers' Hall offer a substantial amount of natural daylight.
