FOUNDERS' HALL

1 Cloth Fair, London, EC1A 7HT | CAPACITY: 100 Guests

Founders' Hall is a striking, distinctly contemporary venue, centrally located on one of the oldest streets in London, but hidden away from the bustle of the City. Three stunning, perfectly proportioned rooms distributed between three floors provide a charming mix of very different styles.

MASTERS AND CLERKS

The intimate and sumptuously furnished Masters and Clerks Room on the first floor is suitable for smaller meetings or dining.

THE PARLOUR

The beautifully decorated, traditional style Parlour situated on the ground floor is perfect for receptions, smaller presentations, meetings and lunches.

THE LIVERY HALL

The quiet and tranquil Livery Hall on the lower ground floor is the largest and most modern room available. It is dominated by the large porthole windows that bathe the room with natural daylight and overlook the gardens of St. Bartholomew's the Great.
