THE COMMITTEE ROOM

Haberdashers' Hall is a beautiful, versatile building with an exclusive atmosphere. Since opening in 2002 it has become a highly sought after venue for presentations, conferences, receptions and dinners.

THE COURTYARD

The Hall is built around a secluded Courtyard which, with its modern water feature, forms a focal point for the whole building.

THE ORANGERY

The Orangery on the ground floor level, with its sculptures and citrus trees, looks out to the Courtyard. Together they offer the ideal location for receptions for up to 350 guests.

THE RECEPTION GALLERY

A stone spiral staircase leads up to the first floor Reception Gallery, which can accommodate receptions for 180 guests with the Courtyard as a backdrop.

THE LIVELY HALL

The Livery Hall leads from the Reception Gallery and is the largest and most impressive room at Haberdashers' Hall. With a magnificent high vaulted ceiling, oak panelled walls and views of the Courtyard, the Livery Hall makes the perfect setting for any event.

THE COURT ROOM

Three highly versatile rooms lead from the Reception Gallery. The Court Room is the largest of these rooms and can accommodate 74 for lunch or dinner.

THE COMMITTEE ROOM

The Committee Room interconnects with the Court Room and can be used for private meetings or for receptions before dining in the Court Room.

THE LUNCHEON ROOM

The Luncheon Room contains decorative panelling from the previous Haberdashers' Hall and provides a warm intimate atmosphere for small lunches or dinners.
